PEACE PACT MAY NOT BE FINISHED BY NEXT FRIDAY

Foe Delegates Will Be Given Substance of Proposed Treaty.

CAN'T PREPARE COMPLETE DOCUMENT IN FOUR DAYS

Three Premiers Meet Again To Discuss Claims of Italians.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Paris, April 21.—(Crave) doubts were expressed today whether the perfected peace treaty would be presented to the German representatives the coming Friday. While the treaty will be communicated to them in substance, it was said in well informed quarters that would be physically impossible to prepare the document in its complete final form, in the four days remaining.

Premiers Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Orlando met again this morning in M. Clemenceau's office and resumed consideration of the Adriatic question. President Wilson again absented himself from the conference.

The council of four will meet this afternoon, President Wilson and Premiers Lloyd George, Clemenceau and Orlando attending.

The German reply to the ultimatum of the council of four that it will not receive any German delegation not fully empowered to conduct and negotiate peace is awaited anxiously in peace conference circles. The next steps toward peace depend on the German reply.

The announcement by Count von Brockdorff-Rantzau, the German foreign minister, that the German government would send delegates without full powers to receive the peace terms and transmit them to the German government has contributed greatly, the newspapers say, toward an alliance between France and Great Britain of America. The French press insists that negotiations looking toward such an alliance are still in progress.

This morning's newspapers see in Germany's sending "couriers" instead of delegates of power standing to Versailles, nothing but evidence of bad faith and a transparent maneuver to gain time.

The Echo de Paris says: "The allied and associated governments are determined not to accept subordinate personalities, and Germany will be immediately notified that she must send delegates equipped with full powers to conclude peace. Upon their arrival at Versailles the first step will be to demand from the envoys that they hold these powers."

The Gaulois, indignant at what it describes as the "impertinence of Germany's coup d'etat," which it regards as a refusal to sign the treaty, says:

"The next word would be with Marshal Foch."

1200 WOUNDED ARE NOW IN OHIO CAMP

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, April 21.—There are more than 1200 wounded and convalescent overseas soldiers in the base hospital at Camp Sherman, according to the weekly report made public today. Men are being discharged from the hospital daily, while others are brought in from eastern general hospitals.

Officers in charge of demobilization at Camp Sherman state that the 37th division was demobilized in record breaking time. Several officers of the 15th infantry division were among them being Major I. T. Setney, Captains Edgar Foltz and Ernest Walyers and Second Lieutenant Lew Brouser.

Sixteen hundred and twenty-four men, mostly from the 148th infantry will be discharged today. Preparations are being made to discharge soldiers of the 145th infantry tomorrow.

ANSELL IS CALLED TO GIVE TESTIMONY

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 21.—Lieutenant Colonel Samuel T. Ansell, a Central figure in the controversy over administration of justice in the army and navy, is being summoned to appear before the committee of the American Bar association which is investigating the subject. Colonel Ansell who has led the fight against the present court martial system, was invited by Chairman Gregory of the committee to give any person he might desire to be heard but has not indicated his plans further than to say he was preparing a written statement to be submitted to the committee.

GERMAN TOWNS LOSE BOASTED ARMY UNITS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Berlin, Thursday, April 17.—Twenty German towns and cities which it has been decided to disband the German army. The official notification while referring to the creation of a new army in the future says: "The strength is entirely unknown at present and declares that it recognizes towns will be injured economically by the withdrawal of garrisons. They will, however, have to acquiesce themselves thereto, the message says, and the authorities will try to consider economic problems while grouping army units."

FEDERAL OFFICIAL DIES.

San Diego, Cal., April 21.—Vernon Z. Reed, United States federal mediator, died last night at Coronado.

INTRODUCES BILL WHICH GAVE OVER WIRES TO THE U. S.

James B. Aswell.

James B. Aswell, democratic representative, is the man who introduced the resolution that resulted in the passing of the bill which gives the government control of the wires and cables. The move of the legislative is causing much discussion.

Aswell says he understood the rates were to be lowered by the U. S. and was amazed when a twenty per cent increase was ordered.

MILITIA GUARDS COURT OFFICIALS

Threat to "Shoot Up" Court Room During Murder Trial Results in Military Demonstration.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Standardsville, Va., April 21.—State troops were on guard today when the circuit court convened to take up the case of Edgar Morris, son of a Greene county deputy sheriff, against whom there are two charges of murder, and who is said to have threatened a repetition of the Hillsville affair of seven years ago when the Allen clan of mountaineers "shot up" the Carroll county court. Morris was arrested late in December on a charge of killing another man at a dance. He was held by his father. On March 29, he was arraigned in Magistrate Sullivan's court and fined $20 for creating trouble at a church, but as the sentence was pronounced, shot and killed the magistrate and escaped to the mountains in an automobile which he commandeered. Reports are that Morris had planned to come to court today and give himself up so his bond which his father is security for, would not be forfeited, but a band of his friends from the mountains were to swoop down as did the Allens, and free him. The authorities appealed to Governor Davis and the Albemarle Rifles of Charlottesville were ordered by the governor to be on hand during the session of the court to afford protection.

Vienna—Soldiers council take over control of Vienna, which is to be Bolshevik in purpose.

500 WAR WORKERS PREPARE FOR OPENING OF LAST LOAN DRIVE

Licking county war workers will meet tonight at Masonic Temple. Over five hundred strong they came for their final instructions from their commanders and to await the zero hour. Under a barrage laid down by our propaganda artillery they will leave the trenches of every day occupation and go over the top to capture the almighty dollar. It will be a glorious victory through machine gun fire and bayonet thrusts, but the machine gunners will be the men who will capture the dollar and do some verbal execution before capitulating.

These shock troops consist of the county district workers from all the townships, a select band of twenty-five from Union, the regular veteran eight divisions from the city and the county factory teams which are trained to the minute for the final and decisive attack.

After dinner the meeting will get down to real business. The plan of campaign will be explained thoroughly and as a wind-up Hugh Diamond, Ohio's "Burr" leader, will make one of his brilliant speeches.

At the close of the campaign Chairman Metz took captain of success. He and his staff have worked untiringly to align all available forces properly for tomorrow's attack.

The slogan, "Do it Tuesday" has been adopted because it can be done on that day. It is merely a matter of will and willingness.

Both Pike and Georgia county have already fully pledged their respective quotas. Pike, Michigan, and Middle town, Conn., have both over-subscribed.

TREASURY DEPT. IS ALL SET FOR LAST LOAN DRIVE

Machinery Prepared to Handle Subscriptions to Victory Loan.

ORATOR DELIVERS SPEECH BY WIRELESS TELEPHONE

Speaker Flies in Airplane 2000 Feet Above His Audience.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Washington, April 21.—A ripple of excitement was apparent today at the treasury on the opening of the Victory Liberty Loan selling campaign. The big nationwide machine for the marketing of $4,500,000,000 of notes as the last big war loan had been so completely adjusted and oiled in advance that it went into operation almost automatically.

The big offices in the treasury which for weeks past have been busy with preparations for the loan campaign were quieter than usual, for the task of putting the big loan across had been passed on to the local committee of workers in thousands of communities. These apparently were so busy today gathering the first harvest of subscriptions that they had no time to report their progress to national headquarters, for most telegrams to the treasury early today were of the "local nature" and told nothing of the opening demonstrations throughout the country.

Washington had its opening celebration on the south steps of the treasury where arrangements had been made for trial of a wireless telephonic apparatus by which an orator flying in an airplane 2,000 feet above the city could deliver a speech to the crowd on the steps.

Admiral Sims was the principal speaker on the program.

GOVERNOR BUYS FIRST BOND IN NEW DRIVE

New York, April 21.—The Victory Loan that got under way shortly after midnight with popular subscriptions totalling more than $100,000 gained impetus as the day advanced and crowds thronged the many patriotic collections. Governor Smith opened the campaign to meet New York's quota in the fifth and last loan offered by the government to meet its war expenses.

Governor Smith purchased the first note of the issue sold in the city and William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury took the second and then other thousands began to roll in as the loan committee workers spread through the crowd that packed the Argonne forest theatre in Times Square.

WEATHER PERFECT FOR TRANSATLANTIC TRIP

St. Johns, N. F., April 21.—Local atmospheric conditions this morning were perfect for flying. The sky was clear and light west winds were blowing.

Whether Captain Frederick D. Rayburn, British aviator, and Henry G. Hawker, his Australian rival would "hop off" today on their proposed Atlantic flights depended on a report available at noon regarding mid-ocean weather conditions.

SPARTACANS WILL DROP TERRORISM

Leader Says Methods May Suit Russia But Germans Do Not Like It.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Copenhagen, April 21.—"When we secure power and are able to realize our ideals the Spartacans will abandon their methods of terrorism, recognizing that those methods may suit Russia but that they do not suit Germany," Hugo Haase, German independent socialist leader, is quoted by the Berlin correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph company as declaring in an interview.

The correspondent who has just returned here from Berlin says Haase told him that the independent socialist party asked for the socialization of all the great services of the country, such as the coal mines, the iron and steel works, etc., and also with all the farms on great estates.

"These to be worked and managed by workmen and peasants councils," Haase went on, "there is some difference of opinion, but the most of us want it realized in the following manner: Every factory or similar institution to select a special small council to control it, but to have great councils of workers formed throughout Germany, these to have a certain power of control over public institutions, courts of justice and so on, together with the right to place bills before the parliament."

If forms proposed were rejected the councils would arrange to take a popular vote."

Haase informed the correspondent that he did not consider a reactionary coup impossible in Berlin but that he was convinced that such control, if it were required, could not last more than a couple of months if indeed it endured as long as that.

GERMAN ENVOYS NOT AUTHORIZED TO SIGN TREATY

Delegates Who Go To Versailles Can Only Receive Terms.

STILL TALK REFERENDUM VOTE BY GERMAN PEOPLE

Officials Downhearted Over Knowledge That Terms Are Severe.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Berlin, Saturday, April 19.—The cabinet devoted less than half an hour to the formulation of its answer to the entente's invitation to Versailles for the purpose of receiving a draft of the peace terms.

A feeling of gloom prevails in official sections tonight and the Associated Press is told that there are no illusions as to obtaining any mitigation in the dictatorial peace awaiting Germany.

The procedure of the council of four came as a surprise, notwithstanding the fact that the news for the past week foreshadowed it, and it is interpreted in cabinet circles and at the foreign office as final proof that the entente is determined forthwith to enter into negotiations based on President Wilson's "fourteen points" and that the terms awaiting Germany are cut and dried.

The German emissaries will merely have instructions to carry the peace document back to Berlin. The question whether the present government will assume the responsibility of accepting or rejecting the terms, or whether it will present them for a national referendum is a matter of conjecture.

Official opinion so far as it added tonight was opposed to the declaration of a referendum and in favor of a peremptory declaration of peace terms based on any other proposition than Mr. Wilson's platform, as the present temper of the German working men is anti-capitalist and anti-imperialist, and the bourgeoisie is in full accord with the proletariat.

The present government, it has been learned is not flinching with the idea of a plebiscite, as it would much rather negotiate peace and set the country to work again, but it is conscious that a peace settlement in which Germany has not had a voice would precipitate a storm of national resentment which no cabinet could weather.

The committee from the entente powers received here last Friday and the German answer was kicked back this afternoon. Philipp Scheidemann, the chancellor, called in representatives of the German press at 6 o'clock this evening and urged them to a vigorous action. The public will receive its first information as to events on Easter morning.

WILL REFUSE PLAN TO MAKE DANZIG FREE

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Danzig, Thursday, April 17.—The German people's council for West Prussia has sent a declaration to the imperial state authorities stating that under no circumstances will the Germans of West Prussia agree to the reported plans of the entente to internationalize the lower Vistula or making Danzig and its vicinity a free state, or place it under Polish sovereignty. It is declared that West Prussia with Danzig will be separated from the German empire.

MEN ON FEE DELEGATION ARE ALMOST UNKNOWN

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Paris, Sunday, April 20.—A statement issued this evening by the Havas News bureau, a semi-official agency, says that surprise has been manifested over the fact that Germany did not select more important men for her peace delegation than Minister von Herr, Herr von Koller, Ernst Schmitt, Hans Reimer and Herr Luders, and also that, according to the German note, they will have power only to receive the text of the terms and not to sign the treaty.

It is declared this evening the statement adds, that "in these circumstances the sending of these delegates to Versailles would be useless."

LEADVILLE MAY BE ABANDONED BY MINERS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
Leadville, Colo., April 21.—Possible abandonment of this picturesque mining town which sprung into existence in 1858 with the discovery of silver, rests today with the decision of the newly organized miners union in the wage controversy which resulted yesterday in the closing of every large mine.

The interests of the entire community are bound up in the extensive mining properties and two smelters. Approximately 1,000 men are idle as the result of yesterday's walkout and pumps in some of the mines already have been abandoned or are being operated by volunteers.

Union leaders today were hopeful that a compromise would be effected following today's meeting for a wage scale of $1 a day in place of the $2.75 offered by the operators.

ITALY'S ATTITUDE BRINGS CRISIS IN PARIS MEETING

Wilson Not Present at Meeting of Parties to London Treaty.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED ON DRASTIC PROBLEMS

President Against Recognition of Pact Dividing Dalmatian Coast.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
The Italian parliament, which was to have met on Wednesday of this week, will not convene until Tuesday, May 6, according to dispatches from Rome. This postponement has evidently been caused by the failure of the council of four of the peace conference in Paris to reach as yet any solution of the problem raised by Italy's claims to Fiume and the Dalmatian coast.

Dispatches from Paris indicate that the situation caused by Italy's unyielding attitude has reached a critical phase. News of the peace conference on

... and at the Stock Exchange

A fact:

At this, the very heart of Wall Street itself, one would naturally expect only high-priced cigarettes to be popular. But Fatima has proved an exception. Fatima's popularity at the Stock Exchange is, in fact, so great that only one change is, in fact, so great that only one cigarette—a high priced one, of course—equals or leads Fatima in sales.

Leggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

... and at the Waldorf-Astoria

A fact:

The Waldorf in New York is but one of the many hotels all over the country, where Fatima is the largest-selling cigarette. The same thing is true, for example, at the Astor, New York, where over 20,000 Fatimas are sold every month. At the Willard, in Washington, at the Granger and the Sinton, in Cincinnati, at the Copley Plaza, in Boston, at the Touraine, in New York, and at dozens of other leading hotels (and clubs, too) all over the country.

A fact:

For the 200 or more men of note who sailed on the George Washington for the Peace Conference, more than a dozen different brands of cigarettes were carried in stock by the ship's "canteen." Of these, the cigarette carried and sold in the largest quantity was Fatima.

What a part the cigarette played! In those grim, tense moments, waiting for the word to "go," it was a blessed link, hours afterward, in those better, sterner moments, when his spirit fought to smile, what was the cigarette?

The cigarette! And now, with the big job done, what so much as the cigarette will help "keep him smiling" until he's home again?

A fact:

Over 740 million Fatimas have so far been shipped to our soldiers abroad. And more are constantly on the way for the boys who still are over there.

At the Capitol Building in Washington, at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, and at scores of other such places—where you would naturally expect only high-priced cigarettes to be sold—Fatima's lead in sales is so important as these sales are, they're but a "drop in the bucket" compared with the MILLIONS of Fatimas smoked every day by the big, plain, "you-and-me" public.

Where Fatima Stands

These facts are reprinted to show you.

The advertisements reproduced here have all appeared in this paper. Please look at them again. They help to illustrate Fatima's unique position as the only inexpensive cigarette that seems actually to be preferred to expensive cigarettes.

For example, Fatima outsells or closely rivals in sales even the highest-priced cigarettes, at such places as

- the Astor, New York
- the Copley Plaza, Boston
- the Gibson and the Sinton, Cincinnati
- the Stock Exchange, New York
- the Touraine, Boston
- the Waldorf-Astoria, New York
- the Yale Club, New York

—and also at many other such places, not mentioned in these advertisements—for instance:

- the Auditorium, Chicago
- the Capitol Building, Washington
- the Congress, Chicago
- the Statler, St. Louis
- the Willard, Washington

Men who buy their Fatimas at such places as these, buy them not because of moderate price, but because they prefer Fatimas. They prefer Fatimas' taste and they find that Fatimas treat them right.

Leggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

NOTE: More and more men, it seems—both those who care nothing for price and those who feel that they should not smoke high-priced cigarettes—are realizing the common-sense of adopting Fatima as their steady smoke.

CHURCHES HOLD EASTER SERVICES

Resurrection of Christ Commemorated By Protestant and Catholic Congregations of City.

Easter morn was a day of rejoicing. The beautiful morning brought forth not only the parade of bright and new garments, but a spiritual enthusiasm seemed to mark the celebration of the day, and the churches of the city were filled at all services.

The realization of peace, the return of boys after months of absence, and the beginning of the period of readjustment, made the day a happy one, but seemed to add to it a serious contemplation of joy.

Dame fashion has rather marred the legendary Easter parade, by pushing the season so far ahead that one does spring reluctant to bid winter welcome, but many were the gala outfits seen in the parade during the day.

A number of the churches gave Easter services, and at the First Presbyterian church, the largest congregations that has visited the church for several years, assembled. It is estimated that between 600 and 700 were present for the morning service, 31 new members were received and 17 baptized.

At the morning service at the Second Presbyterian church, a flower service was held at the morning hour when the platform and pulpit were banked with cut flowers and potted plants which were sent as a memorial for deceased relatives or friends of members.

At both Catholic churches, St. Francis de Sales and the Blessed Sacrament, the customary Easter services were observed and large congregations were lavishly, the altars being banked with white Easter flowers, and hundreds of candles.

The rain storm in the evening banished Easter togetherness, but large crowds were down town and the theatres were crowded.

Improvements at City Hospital.

The Masonic temple was given as headquarters for the workers and a luncheon of cocoa and sandwiches was served the young women by the board of managers of the hospital.

Each year the Twentieth Century girls have given a tag-day and their efforts have meant many needed improvements at the hospital. This year they are contemplating the institution of a laboratory at the hospital.

THE VICTORY LOAN.
The case for the Victory Liberty Loan has been admirably stated by very public writers. The home newspaper can not say anything new so thoroughly covered a subject. Yet the Advocate wishes to put every ounce of its influence behind the men who are working for the success of the loan. It hopes with all its heart to see Lucking county go over the top.
It comes down largely to a matter of individual and community pride. Every one knows the absolute necessity that this money be raised. Nearly 1,000,000 men are still in Europe. They must be brought home, they must be supported until they get home. The United States government must pay its bills for munitions and supplies ordered before the close of this year. There is no possible way of escaping these obligations.
If by any possibility this loan should not be taken, the government could raise the high taxes still higher, and settle its bills at once. But most people would regard that as an injury to business and involving much personal inconvenience. The loan however will be taken. It is now simply a question whether each individual and each community wants to do its fair share.
The man who can look back on this war and feel that he took his full share of bonds and a little more, is going to feel a lot better about it as the war goes on. If he should have a bad day, he will always feel a little better. Just the same with the community. The place that goes over the top will have something to boast of for many years. But the town that fell down on its abandonment will spread its reputation for low public spirit. The bonds are a splendid investment on the liberal terms offered. The man and the town that fails to take its share will regret it very soon.
In the several Liberty Loans that have preceded the Victory Loan and in the 1918 War Savings campaign of Lucking county, the town that failed to take its share will regret it very soon. To make the record for Liberty Loan, the community must take its full share of the Victory Loan and also its quota of the 1919 issue of War Savings stamps. And Lucking county will do it.
ALMOST UNANIMOUS.
Governor James M. Cox brought the legislature to time when the House failed to pass the Act for the teachers to take the oath of loyalty to the United States and the state of Ohio.
The governor immediately issued a statement demanding the passage of the measure and its prompt passage. He threatened the veto to initiate such a measure but seeing small into every county and every defeat of every legislator who voted against it. Evidently frightened by the predicament they found themselves in, they reconsidered the bill and passed it with only 5 votes against it.

Every loyal American will praise the stand taken by Governor Cox to free the schools of German propaganda, not only through the text books, but in the more insidious form of disloyal instructors. It is no slur upon the loyalty of the great majority of the teachers of Ohio to require the taking of an oath of allegiance as such oath is required of the President of the United States, members of congress, all U.S. officials, the governor of the state and all states, county and city officials and also soldiers.
The governor is determined to bring the question to an issue whenever it arises as it has several times in the present session of the legislature. He will not parley nor temporize in any attempt made to play for favor of the disloyal elements in Ohio. The hurried scramble to pass the bill, after the governor's statement, was evidently caused by fear rather than a desire to serve Ohio's best interests.

FAMILY WITH CHILDREN.
Newspaper paragraphers have often poked fun at the landlords who would not rent a house or rooms to a family that had children. Amusing pictures have been drawn of those swell city apartments that admitted to their hallowed precincts every kind of a yellow mongrel cur that ever snapped at a lady's heels. But the children of our hearts, the future hope of the nation, are rigorously excluded.
And which is very good stuff. Still, there is another side to it. A suffering landlady writes to an exchange as follows:
"I wish to appeal to this legislature to have pity on the landlords and ladies and not pass the bill now before them, compelling us to take in all children. Some are good, but some are incorrigible, belonging to good parents, but not being governed at home. They will move into a nice flat and soon the walls and woodwork are covered with indecipherable pencil marks and pictures. They drive nails into nice chairs while castings, banisters, furniture, or anything else they please. One will hold out a nice lace curtain, while the other jumps through it, and many other things too numerous to mention."
Anyone who has rented houses to a miscellaneous lot of families knows that plenty of them maintain no control over their children. If the youngsters did not do the particular things referred to above, it is because their ferile minds had not yet conceived those particular stunts.
Many fathers and mothers feel no responsibility whatever for keeping up property. The children quickly feel this difference, and indulge their taste for mischief.
Parents should realize that undisciplined children will never be successful in life. The boy that begins by carelessness with his landlord's property, will end by being careless of his employers' interest. No promotion for him.

SALOON SUBSTITUTES.
All over the country plans are being formed to establish in the present "wet" territory, social meeting places for workmen to take the place under prohibition of the saloons. In some cities these are to be established by the returning war workers. They will be much like the Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. huts. Their purpose will be substantially the same as the war huts. They will be "moral centers," where hard working and struggling people can have some brightness put into their lives, where they will feel the satisfaction of comradeship, and where they can have some rest from toil and some relief from monotony.
The California Commission on Immigration and Housing is one of the public bodies that is devoting much attention to this problem. It believes it is of the most vital importance to have these social centers created. One of its agents reports that much of the dissatisfaction with prohibition is not so much on account of the loss of the "beverage," as that the workmen feel that their social center is to be taken away from them. The men must have some place to sit evenings, and they need recreation.
Such centers are not merely for the duties that are accustomed to be done, but in those that have been done for a period of years.
These social centers should be cheerful places, with games and amusements, and phonographs and other things. The workmen should be made to feel perfectly at home there and should be free to enjoy themselves with friends without interference from anyone and without officious supervision.
When the friend advocate of prohibition must admit that closing up saloons without giving their balances some outlet for their social desires, is not going to work satisfactorily, at all much interference has been due to those craving for social life. That they must have to meet in some other place, it is up to all the good influences of the community to provide for it.

D. U. TRUSTEES PLAN BUILDINGS
New Structures Placed to Save Trees on Campus—Marsh Hall Will Not Be Rebuilt.
(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, April 21.—Colonel E. A. Deeds, Edward Canby of Dayton and Ambrose Sawyer of Cleveland, members of the building committee of the Denison board of trustees, arrived in Granville Friday evening for the completion of the work begun on April 15. They were accompanied by the architect from New York, and by a representative of Olmsted Brothers, landscape architects of Boston. The party spent all of Saturday in studying the grounds and have now determined the general layout of all the buildings. A careful resurvey was made of the campus where the buildings are to go and indenting position of all trees. They find that by a slight shift of building locations, they will be able to save the trees on the Dustin farm all burns near the house are to be removed and the old dwelling built and occupied by Hubert Howe Bancroft, the historian, will be restored to its original condition and will be known as the "Bancroft House." The barns will be rebuilt on the Chapin farm for which, as yet, no name has been chosen, although the pioneer origin of the place will be indicated by the name "Rose Quarry," as well as the original ownership of "Gilpatrick Quarry." All along the three mile walk attractive signs will be placed calling attention to objects of special interest. The old stone residence, once more to be known as the Bancroft House, was during the Civil War used as one of the stations in the "underground railway" by which runaway slaves were given assistance in reaching Canada. The next meeting of the committee will be in New York, sometime this spring. It is definitely stated that Marsh Hall is not to be rebuilt.

NUISANCE CHARGE IS MADE AGAINST MOORE
The home of Wm. Moore, corner Buena Vista and Indiana streets, was raided by patrolmen Saturday night and Moore and two other men and two women were taken into custody. He was slated for keeping a house of prostitution and the women were charged with being inmates.
Moore's case was continued until Tuesday and today Chief of Police Sheridan will submit to an affidavit charging Moore's place with being a nuisance. Many complaints have been received at various times by the police regarding the actions of visitors at the Moore home and a step will be put to the practice.

GREATEST DANGER FROM INFLUENZA
The greatest danger from an attack of the grip, or influenza, is after the acute stage is over when the lowered vitality makes the system an easy prey for any germ disease to which it is exposed. The debility resulting from an attack of the grip is so persistent that, if the blood is not built up and the strength restored, it may last for months and years. That this is unnecessary is shown by the experience of Mrs. Laura M. Van Scoy, who lives at No. 30 1/2 Thorpe street, Danbury, Conn. She says:
"I had a severe attack of grip, and before I had fully recovered rheumatism set in and tormented me for three months. I was in a badly run-down state. Soon after it began I was so lame for a week that I could hardly walk. It kept growing steadily worse and pretty soon I actually couldn't walk. At last I had to give up completely and for three weeks I was obliged to keep to my bed. My hands were so stiff I couldn't hold them and my hands were perfectly helpless. Then the pains began to threaten my heart and thoroughly alarmed me."
"While I was suffering this way I chanced to run across a little book that told about the merits of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The statements in it impressed me and led me to buy a box. These pills proved the very thing I needed. Improvement set in as soon as I began to take them, and it was very marked by the time I had finished the first box. Four boxes made me a well woman."
Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Price 25 cents per box. Write to Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for free book, "Building Up the Blood."

Farmers Are the Foundation.
American business men are addicted to the habit of expelling farmers. They pressure bank orders for more than they can deliver and their trade customers order more than they can deliver. When the market advances sellers and producers demand full delivery because they have a speculative profit in sight. When the market breaks the buyers cancel orders and then turn round and offer to take what they actually need on a lower basis. The business on the basis of the real necessities of the farmer's life, the foundation of the nation's agricultural products, no firm, with an expanding tendency, and nothing but a general error of judgment can shake the stability of the farming business this year. —New York Commercial.

WANT WINES MARKETER. (ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM) Berlin, Thursday, April 17.—Wine wholesalers are trying to release into the channels of trade enormous quantities of wines and spirits which were stored for the army when fighting ceased and which are either being drunk by the soldiers councils or are in danger of being ruined by coming warm weather, owing to unsuitable storage conditions. It is believed by the soldiers that the high prices of wines can be materially reduced if the liquors are released before it is too late.

AMUSEMENTS

ALHAMBRA.

"When Men Desire."

Polygamy was fast sweeping over Germany under the old imperial government, which forced women to submit to all manner of humiliating conditions so that the population might be increased to compensate for battle losses. These conditions are shown in "When Men Desire," the Theda Bara super-production which opens today at the Alhambra theatre. It is a William Fox picture, which shows graphically how the women suffered under the tyranny of the Kaiser's government.

In addition, the picture tells a thrilling story of an American woman of German parentage who narrowly escapes being caught in the toils of this evil system. She finds it impossible to make her escape out of the grasping clutches of Germany until she poses as an infamous woman whose passport she obtains after an exciting adventure.

"Her First Mistake."

There are three famous screen comedians who portray the leading roles in "Her First Mistake," the latest Paramount-Mack Sennett comedy which is on view at the Alhambra today. They are Louise Fazenda, one of the chief fun-makers of the Sennett staff, Chester Conklin, a comedian of more than average ability, and Myrtle Lind, a charming player.

"Gambling in Souls."

"That 'Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned' is said to be eloquently exemplified in the character played by Madeline Travers in "Gambling in Souls," her new photoplay. The story tells how Marcia Dunning trails the man who ruined her husband in the stock market, and finally brings him and his son to a point where both face financial ruin, and the son, in addition, is within the shadow of the penitentiary. This play, a Wm. Fox production, which will be shown at the Alhambra Wednesday and Thursday, is said to have in it qualities that hold the tense interest of the audience from start to finish.

Houdini in New Feats.

The principal attraction at the Alhambra theatre for Wednesday and Thursday will be the ninth episode of H. A. Houdini's super-serial, "The Master Mystery." In this chapter Houdini, the hand-cut king, who is the star of the picture, will be seen in new, breath-holding feats of escape from restraint. One of these pictures him releasing himself from bonds while lying in an elevator shaft and rolling to safety just a slight fraction of a second before the elevator descends to its uttermost level.

"Thirty a Week."

Tom Moore's leading woman in "Thirty a Week," his second Goldwyn starring vehicle, is beautiful Tallulah Bankhead, an Alabama society girl and granddaughter of United States Senator John H. Bankhead, and daughter of Representative Bankhead. Though a comparative newcomer in motion pictures, Miss Bankhead gives a delightful performance. "Thirty a Week" comes to the Alhambra Friday and Saturday.

"Oh, Boy."

AFTER CLOUDS COME SUNSHINE.
AFTER DESPONDENCY COMES JOY.
AFTER SICKNESS COMES HEALTH.
AFTER WEAKNESS COMES STRENGTH.

In the spring when you're "all in"—fagged out—blood thin, if you will turn to Nature's remedy, a tonic made from wild roots and bark, which has stood fifty years as the best spring tonic—you will find strength regained. No need to tell you it's Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, put up in tablet or liquid form, and sold by every druggist in the land. After a hard winter—shut up indoors, your blood needs a temperance tonic, a tissue-builder and blood-maker such as this "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's.

Ashtabula, Ohio—"My little girl, up to the time she was seven, suffered with stomach trouble. She was weak and puffy all the time, nothing the doctors gave me for her nor anything I gave her seemed to help her until I began giving her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and this medicine completely cured her stomach trouble and she is now growing into a strong, healthy child."—Mrs. Clyde S. Warren, 377 W. 4th St.

Princess theatre musical comedy success which P. Ray Constock and Wm. Elliott sends to the Auditorium theatre tomorrow evening. The book and lyrics of "Oh, Boy" are by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse and the music is by Jerome Kern. "The story of 'Oh, Boy' revolves around one George Budd, a young bachelor who secretly marries Lou Ellen Carter without taking her parents into his confidence.

Jim Marvin, a friend of Budd's, gathers about him a number of gay friends at Budd's apartments in order to celebrate a polo victory. They enter by the way of the fireescape just about the same time as the newly married couple, and clever George Budd induces Jim Marvin to entertain his friends in an adjoining room while he spends a few minutes with his bride. A telegram arrives from Budd from his Quaker aunt who is his guardian and opposed to his marrying. The bride decides it best to spend the night at her home. She and Jackie leave the apartment, and then Jackie Sampson, an actress who plays "Modesty" in "Experience," dashes in the open window to escape a constable. Luck favors her for she meets Jim Marvin. She tells him she was with a party in a restaurant, and during a mix-up and in order to protect herself, she hit an officer in the eye. Jim Marvin proves a timely friend and introduces her to the constable as the real Mrs. Budd. The arrival of the bride's father and mother, and of Budd's Quaker aunt, result in some amusing situations, but as George is a resourceful young man he manages to straighten out the mix-up and the story ends with happiness for all. Eighteen musical numbers grace the score of "Oh, Boy," of the whistler kind. The special cast engaged to interpret "Oh, Boy" could hardly be better and includes Lavina Winne, Theodora Warfield, Helen Dubois, Anna Little, Harry Myers, Franklin, Graham, Thomas C. Leary, J. B. Home and John Phillips. "Oh, Boy" was an entire season in New York at the Princess theatre and then continued its run at the Casino. Seats are now selling.

"The Man From Painted Post."

A special treat is in store for the many admirers of Douglas Fairbanks in his newest Artcraft picture, "The Man From Painted Post," coming to the Auditorium theatre next Thursday. This script for this photoplay was written by Douglas himself and is based on Jackson Gregory's recent magazine story, "Silver Shippers." In the role of Fanny Jim Sherwood, the immaculate dude who wipes out a powerful gang of cattle rustlers, the smiling star offers a characterization that will meet with popular favor among patrons of clean pictures. Bucking broncos, crack riding, trick roping and bulldogging steers are among the interesting features offered by this comedy drama of the true west.

"Dancer, Go Slow."

Mae Murray, who created a sensation in her Universal feature, "Dancer, Go Slow," has been booked for a return at the Auditorium on Wednesday of this week. This feature with its punch, all others connected with the promotion of the motion picture industry, for in placing the stories of Mr. Wright in pictures a wealth of new and fine material will be given to the motion picture camera. Any one of this author's stories contains enough drama to make several motion pictures, and they should take a pre-eminent place in a field where a dearth of good material is often felt.

GRAND.

"Two Women," featuring Anita Stewart and Earl Williams, is a tense and emotional drama, with the principle scenes of action in the mountains, with Miss Stewart at her very best. She has never made any better showing in any picture, and the beautiful mountain country, the sort of background Mr. Curwood uses so frequently with such telling effect, and these glimpses of nature's grandeur add much to the fascination of the production. It is a contrasting tale of the pure, unselfish love

This is probably the first public showing of this picture in the State of Ohio. A premiere preceded the Grand of which no other theatre in this vicinity can boast.
Anita Stewart at her very best scores another big triumph in this powerful super-production. As one of the "Two Women" she is a being of victory, of magnificence, of radiant and sensitive charm. This is not an ordinary picture—but a special production, with this matchless and painted-of stars, supported by Earl Williams. Directed by Ralph Ince.

FAMO DESTROYS Dandruff Bacilli
Science has perfected a wonderful preparation that stops Schorrhea (the medical term for dandruff) by killing the dandruff microbe.
Its name is FAMO and it is a product of one of the famous pharmaceutical houses of Detroit.
The ingredients have never been used on the scalp before but they are well known to physicians.
As fast as nature grows new hair the Schorrhea germ kills it off.
Unless you destroy the germ with FAMO, the new hair will grow weaker and weaker and baldness finally will result.
FAMO destroys the dandruff bacilli and makes new, luxuriant hair grow.
FAMO actually retards grayness. It contains no alcohol. It stops all itching of the scalp.

MAXWELL SMASHES WORLD'S RECORD

Runs 4241 Miles in Seven Days Without a Stop—Eleven Million Consecutive Revolutions of Crankshaft Prove Maxwell Sturdiness.

Following a deft that was marked for its boldness and supreme confidence in the car, a 1919 Maxwell has shattered one of the most coveted records of the automobile world.

The details of the latest achievement of this consistent winner have just been received by Roy J. Baird, local Maxwell Dealer.

In the latter part of March this year, H. L. Arnold, Maxwell distributor at Los Angeles, notified the public at large that "the Maxwell will break the World's Non-stop record sealed in high gear, twenty-four hour city record."

"I consider it a wonderful tribute of confidence in the car," commented Mr. Baird "that the Los Angeles distributor should come out with an advance announcement of such positive assurance and during reliability. It is of more than passing interest that he did not say the Maxwell may break" or "will attempt to break" but in large bold type sweepingly asserted "the Maxwell will break the World's Record."

"Seven days later the news was flashed all over the United States that the Maxwell, again demonstrating its repeated claims of endurance and superior workmanship, had after a gruelling seven days test romped away with the first great competitive honors of 1919, made by a standard touring car."

Details of New World's Record.
Further details are as follows: With the motor sealed in high gear and after driving for seven days through the thickly congested streets of Los Angeles for seven consecutive days the closing thirty-six hours of the phenomenal record were driven in the fiercest storm of the winter season.

The total of 4241 miles was made as follows: First day 449 miles; second 623; third 634; fourth 533; sixth 503; seventh 739 miles. The outstanding feature of the Maxwell "sealed in high" record is the tremendous test on the clutch, drive shaft axles and differential, in so successfully surviving the tremendous strain of starting and stopping its load of these men, extra gasoline, oil and supplies for the passengers, driving relentlessly day and night, sunshine and storm and stopping a thousand times—the car but not the motor—on the busiest streets of Los Angeles.

Each of the four wheels of the record breaking car revolved 2,851,436 times during the test, a tremendous strain on the axles and wheel bearings. More astounding perhaps is the fact that the Maxwell crank shaft made more than eleven million revolutions without a stop. Experts have further figured out that over twenty-two million sparks were collected and delivered to the spark plugs, a startling proof of ignition efficiency in the Maxwell.
